Q35 Are there any other comments you wish to make with regard to the Travellers' Sites document?

I have lived in Ross-On-Wye most of my life and know the town well , with this in mind (COMMENT REDACTED)

I worry a great deal that a town site would bring trouble.

However not tarring everyone with the same brush is also important.

A site that would cause little distress as possible to homeowners is the only solution.

Therefore a site near the cattle market, down near baileys diy .. the owner of Labels will have to serve Ross like the rest of us and accept that down there is the best place for a discreet site that's out of the way but close to town.

There could also be a site behind tudorville or out between the Vine tree pub and Walford . Any closer to town than these sites and you risk ruining it. Look to monmouth for ideas , they seem to have got it right and have a thriving high street and pretty town .
