Do you need help at home?

Ask the council for a care assessment

Anyone over the age of 18, in need of care or support, is entitled to ask for a free adult social care assessment. This also applies to young people under 18 who are transferring their care and support to adult services.

If the level of your need meets the national eligibility criteria, the council can help arrange support to meet your needs. This might range from a couple of hours a week home help to support you to live independently in your own home, to organising residential care where that is the best option.

What happens in the care assessment?

The purpose of an assessment is to establish the care and support needs you have and identify what support is required to meet those needs. The assessment is also used to check if you are eligible for assistance using the national eligibility criteria.

A social care worker will come to visit you and your carer or family member. They will go through the assessment with you and talk about your needs and work with you to find out what services and support will best help you to live a more independent life. Alternatively, you may choose to complete the assessment yourself, with help from a family member, friend or carer, with support from the council as required.

The council will check that you agree with the content of the assessment and then use it to see if you are eligible for support from the council. This is done using the national eligibility criteria. The council will share a copy of the assessment and eligibility decision with you in writing and agree the next steps, which may include preparing a support plan if you have eligible unmet needs.

Financial assessment

If you are eligible for support from the council, an appointment will be arranged to visit you at home or somewhere else convenient for you. The council officer will talk to you about your finances and work out what you will have to pay towards the cost of your care. This is also an opportunity to make sure you are getting all the benefits to which you are entitled.

Direct payments

If you are entitled to help from the council, you will be offered the option of taking out a direct payment. Direct payments help you take control of your own care and allow you to make choices about how you are best supported. You can read more about direct payments on the council's website at: www.herefordshire.gov.uk/adults.

To find out more and talk to someone about getting a care assessment, contact Herefordshire Council on 01432 260101 or ASCAdviceandReferralTeam@herefordshire.gcsx.gov.uk.

We are Kemble at Home

At Kemble at Home, we like to think we are rather unique. Why? We know that an outstanding service can only stem from an equally outstanding company culture, and we work hard to create a place where everybody – our staff as well as our clients – can feel safe, valued, and understood.

We want our clients to look forward to our next visit, we want our carers and office staff to love coming to work, and we want our partners and friends to enjoy working together with us.

We are positive and open minded, we find solutions, and we live by our principles. For us, the enjoyment comes from doing something good for someone else, from getting the best out of people and making each day a pleasure for all involved.

Outstanding for Caring by CQC

We dare to say we have good attitude. And we are very proud that it has won us an 'Outstanding for Caring' rating by CQC and the Care Employer Award at the Great British Care Awards in 2019.

Choosing a domiciliary care provider

Home Care also known as Domiciliary Care is the obvious choice for people who require help with their day-to-day personal lives within their own home, enabling them to live more independent lives and preferable even to many people with more complex needs to moving into a care home. Home care helps people maintain their personal independence and allows them to feel comfortable in their familiar surroundings and in touch with friends and family within their local community. Domiciliary care is flexible and can be tailored to meet individual needs at whatever time they are needed.

Finding a registered home care agency (registered with the Care Quality Commission CQC) in Herefordshire has been simplified to an extent by the publication of this directory and its A-Z Listings of 'Registered Domiciliary Care Providers' in the county.

What to consider when choosing a Home Care Provider

It is advisable to contact at least three domiciliary care providers who are local to yourself and ask them to send you information regarding the range of home care they provide and also their costs for providing it.

When you're deciding on a home care provider, ask yourself if their services match your precise needs, now and for the future. Also ask if the provider:

- is registered with the appropriate regulatory body in England, this is the Care Quality Commission
- employs staff that have been checked with the Disclosure and Barring Service (formerly known as Criminal Records Bureau)
- fully trains its care workers and monitors their attendance at your home
- provides a free visit to your home to assess your requirements.
