

Your views – More Facilities at Hereford Library

Please place into the survey box at the front counter deadline 8th September 2018

If you are a regular visitor to Hereford Library you will have seen that we have been renovating and making some improvements. During the course of the works, a large space on the mezzanine floor (currently behind closed doors) has become available for public use.

As we finalise our plans it would be really helpful to hear how library visitors would like to see this space used and to understand the level of demand. We can't promise we'll be able to include everything you want, but all suggestions are welcome.

If you need help to understand this document, or would like it in another format or language, please ask at the counter.
