Dear John

The case officer for the highlighted planning application is Adam Lewis – Principal Planning Officers within the Major Applications team. He has provided the following update;

The re-consultation on this application is currently underway. Although nothing is set in stone yet, I am hoping to be in a position to take it to the committee scheduled for 26th July.

I will keep you posted if there are any changes to this timescale

Kind regards

Sam

Dear Sam

I refer to Herefordshire's response to my questions. Now that the Nutrients issue appears to have been resolved, can you find out from your development management colleague, who is the case officer for the reserved matters application, which Planning Committee is he expecting P192515/ RM to be considered at. It would be helpful for me to know the outcome when I prepare my report and recommendations.

Kind regards
