Old House
Hereford

This is the Old House. It is a very special building with lots to see inside.

This guide will help you find your way around our wonderful house.

This is the way into the house.

You can also come in using the door on the side of the house.

When we get to the house, we will go to the reception desk.

There we will meet staff who work in the house.

Staff will have a photo badge around their neck.

The staff are very nice and friendly.

They can answer any questions you might have.

They can tell you where to go and what to see.

The reception is in the shop.

Sometimes it gets busy.

If you have money, you can buy something to take home.

On the ground floor is the History Room.

Here you can learn all about Hereford in the past.

There is more to see upstairs.

Please be careful on the stairs and do not run.

When you reach the top of the stairs you are in the Dining Parlour.

You can learn all about how and where the families would have lived.

The dining table is set up with interesting meals and menus from long ago.

Around the corner there are costumes you can try on.

You can take the stairs up to the next floor to see the bedrooms.

Be careful on the stairs.

The first room is the Old Bedchamber.

Here you can see a beautifully embroidered bedspread and some original furniture.

From here you can enter the Passage Chamber through the doorway.

In this room you can try on old fashioned clothes.

From here you can enter the Small Bedchamber.

In the Small Bedchamber you can see beautiful wall hangings and a children's bed.

Go back into the Passage Chamber.

You can now go into the New Bedchamber.

In the New Bedchamber you can see coloured wall hangings and a big bed.

You can even get in the bed and see what it feels like.

There is also a place to do some colouring in.

Way out and exit

To go out. Go back down both staircases.

You can exit through the shop.

I am ready to go home

If you want to leave the museum you can tell an adult you are with.

Some useful things to know...

There are no toilets in the house.

WC

There are toilets nearby.

A member of staff will be happy to show you the way.

You cannot eat or drink
in the house.

This is to stop pests eating the contents of the house.

I need a break

If you need a break, tell the adult you are with.

You can go to the quiet area in the

Small Bedchamber
